HEAR MR. CORLISS

SECRETARY RELIGIOUS LIBERTY ASSOCIATION TO SPEAK ON THE PROPOSED BILL

The combination Sunday rest and eight-hour bill, which has been placed upon the ballot through the initiative, will be discussed by J. O. Corliss, secretary of the Pacific Religious Liberty Association, in a speech at the high school auditorium here next Monday night at 8 o'clock. This bill is entitled, "An act to provide for one day in seven as a day of rest," and is numbered 45 on the ballot.

Mr. Corliss will endeavor to analyze the bill clearly, and will show its effects upon all classes. As both the supporters and opponents of the bill are much interested in it, the attendance promises to be large. The Los Angeles chamber of commerce took action Thursday opposing this bill, describing it as "drastic in operation," "discriminatory in its provisions," and one likely to cause "widespread hardship." Whether or not it will do this Mr. Corliss will endeavor to show.

The text of the initiative measure to be submitted directly to the electors will prove of interest at this time:

An act to provide for one day in seven as a day of rest. The people of the state of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Definition and construction. In this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The word "day" means twenty-four consecutive hours, the word "Sunday" means the period of time which begins at 12 o'clock p. m. on Saturday night and ends at 12 o'clock p. m. on the following night, and other words and terms used have the same meaning as defined in the codes of California.

(b) A contract to perform a lawful act, though made on Sunday, is valid, but a contract rendered void by unlawful action on Sunday, cannot be made valid by subsequent action.

Section 2. It is unlawful for any person, form, association or corporation in this state, or for any officer or employee of the state of California, or of any political subdivision thereof, to violate any of the following provisions:

(1) To hire, employ or require any employee, apprentice, servant or other person or persons to work at or engage in any trade, business, profession or occupation for more than six days in any calendar week of seven days.

(2) To work at or to engage in any said trade, business, profession or occupation for wages for more than six days in any calendar week of seven days.

(3) To keep open on Sunday for the purpose of transacting any business or labor, any store, office, shop, building or place of business where goods, wares, merchandise or property is sold or offered for sale, or to sell or offer for sale any goods, wares, merchandise or property on said day.

(4) To keep open or operate on Sunday for profit any mill, mine, factory, bake-shop, barber-shop, workshop, studio or any such or similar place of business or occupation which is managed by or employs either skilled or unskilled labor, or both, provided, however, that the above provisions of this section do not apply to unavoidable work in caring for live animals, or to cases of urgent emergency. Immediate danger to life, property, public safety or public health only shall be considered cases of urgent emergency within the meaning of this act. And provided that the above sub-sections, numbered (1) and (2) do not apply to any person whose total hours of labor during seven consecutive days do not exceed forty-eight hours, and, provided further, that the above subsections numbered (3) and (4) do not apply to works of daily necessity. It is hereby declared that said works of necessity within the meaning of this act include the following, but not so as to restrict the ordinary meaning of the expression "works of necessity":

(a) Work essential to the relief of sickness and suffering, including the sale of drugs, medicines or surgical appliances by retail for strictly medicinal purposes;

(b) Furnishing lodging or meals at hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, lunch stands, cafes and work incidental thereto;

(c) Ice cream parlors.

(d) Parks, bath houses, libraries, museums or art galleries;

(e) Sports, theaters and amusements;

(f) Setting sponges in bakeries;

(g) The sale and delivery of daily newspapers and magazines, or the necessary work in the preparation of

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

THE SONG OF THE STRANDED—"THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME"

It is stated that three hundred thousand Americans were caught abroad in all portions of the war zone, and in consequence of the sudden rush to arms, have been so hampered by lack of ordinary free movements that travel abroad has lost its charm, and the song of the stranded has merged into one grand chorus heard all over the fighting sections, "I Wish I Was Home."

In the matter of embarrassment and inconvenience, all suffer in degree, and in similar method, and yet while all share in a general and large sympathy, there are some channels more acute than others. The professional globe-trotter, who spends half his time abroad, goes every year and for no other purpose than to make a display of wealth, a class, all too numerous, will be hardly expected to get as much generous sympathy as the large student class, who by conserving limited means venture to go for study and observation and suddenly find communication cut with home and friends, their stay prolonged and their purses shortened by methods involving great additional expense never contemplated.

The wealthy professional traveler can have or create friends with an ease unknown to the others, and while all should be helped soon as possible by our government, the student class should be allowed the use of the shortest lines. It may be that the combatants are as generous in allowing free movements as the rules of war will permit, but no American should be held as a Russian spy anywhere. It looks as if some of the belligerents rub it in on Americans to magnify their own importance.

NORTH GLENDALE

Miss Annie McIntyre, principal of the North Central avenue school, reports the enrollment of one hundred and eighteen pupils at present, with a prospect of more during the first few weeks, a substantial increase over the past year's enrollment. No changes have been made in teachers, the same in charge as previously. The attitude of the pupils toward the prospective year is very satisfactory. Bright eyed and happy, the children have started where they left off, certainly an encouraging condition for both teacher and pupil.

Word has been received from Mrs. G. C. Eddings of 1025 Fairview avenue, who is visiting friends and relatives in Oregon and Washington, that she is at present in North Yakima, Wash., visiting her cousin, Mrs. Brown of that place, who spent the past winter as Mrs. Eddings' guest here and who will be remembered by many who had the privilege of meeting the charming lady during her sojourn in North Glendale.

Mrs. Carrie Murphy of 1648 Ruth street visited her sister, Mrs. Philip Balerino of North Hoover street, Los Angeles, Thursday.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Brown of Sixth street and Grand View avenue, who was severely injured by falling from a ladder some three months ago and who is now getting around on crutches, will be very glad to learn that he expects to throw his crutches away in about ten days and will soon be out among them.

Mr. A. A. Campbell, the genial druggist at Logan's, announces the arrival of his two children from Virginia, who will attend school in North Glendale. Mr. Campbell expects to locate here permanently and expects his entire family in the near future.

Mrs. C. H. Cunningham of 1013 Fairview avenue is entertaining as her house guest for the week Miss Erma Rounds of the Chicago Conservatory of Music, who is spending several months in the Southland.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. William Wilbur of 1105 San Rafael street was most delightfully surprised by a party of her friends who learned that the gracious lady celebrated her birthday on that date and in honor of the occasion came laden with hearty congratulations, best wishes and good things to eat, which was certainly appreciated and responded to by the happy honoree. A general good time was enjoyed by the following friends, who had made the evening one that will linger long in the memory of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Rathbone, Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker, Mr. and Mrs. Maranville, Mrs. Lillian Judd and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilbur, all of Glendale and North Glendale.

PRIZE SNAKE STORY

AND CALIFORNIA IS SAID TO BE A GREAT STATE FOR SNAKES

Mrs. Albert Boyd of Mineral Springs, Ind., heard her chickens making a fuss. She took her hands out of the dishwater and went to see what was the trouble. She found that Mrs. Garter Snake and her children had come to call on her chickens. Mrs. Boyd seized a club and went to killing snakes. When she had dispatched the mother snake and all the little snakes, she added up the total. She found that she had killed one old snake and forty-eight (count 'em) little snakes, making a grand total of forty-nine.

Samuel Roberts and Seth Partlow of East Columbus, in the same state, went to Brown county to shoot squirrels. They were in a dense woods when they heard a noise.

"There is a locust on that tree. Do you hear him singing?" Roberts said to Partlow.

Just then Partlow looked down and saw a rattlesnake getting ready to strike Roberts. Partlow shot the snake. The rattler was four and a half feet long and was possessed of nine rattles and a button, which the hunters say fixes his age at ten years. They say the snake was as big around as a man's arm, and old Brown county residents who saw the reptile declared it was the biggest they ever saw killed in the county.

Not to be outdone by Indiana, Colorado comes forward with the following:

A six-foot rattlesnake defied one of the largest autos of the stage line operating between Loveland and Estes park to pass it in the Big Thompson canyon and kept up an uneven fight until it was killed.

"Dad" Osborn, oldest driver in the canyon, encountered the reptile in the canyon as he turned a sharp curve twelve miles west of here. The snake lifted its head, took the center of the road and expressed its defiance by coiling to strike and shaking its eleven rattles vigorously.

Osborn stopped to give it an opportunity to move on, but the reptile remained in its position for several minutes and then started toward the machine. Women passengers screamed and several men left the auto for cover.

The snake, when within five feet of the machine, coiled and sprang twice at the hood, sinking its fangs in a tire on the second leap. Osborn left his seat. Efforts to scare the reptile failed, and Osborn fired two bullets into its body, killing it with the second shot.

REBEKAHS ENJOY MEETING

The Carnation Rebekah lodge, No. 157, met in the I. O. O. F. hall at the usual hour Thursday evening, Sept. 10, and entertained the following grand officers: Sister Fanny Lacy, president of the Rebekah Assembly; Sister Mary Reynolds, conductor of the assembly, and the district deputy president, Sister Nunn of Hollywood.

The evening was very instructive as well as enjoyable. Many speeches were made and Sister Hunter merited much praise and amusement in her reading, entitled "Riding the Goat."

Visitors from the following lodges were present: Del Mar, Long Beach, Edelweis of Los Angeles; also the Noble Grand Orange Blossom lodge, Exeter, Los Angeles.

Dainty refreshments were served and all departed with the anxious desire to meet again soon.

Members of the Carnation Rebekah lodge, No. 257, will give a chicken supper at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, Sept. 12. This delightful affair will take place in the home of Brother and Sister Hartley, corner Verdugo road and Sycamore canyon, and all members are cordially invited to attend.

LOSES CHANCE AT PRESIDENCY

Glendale friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Campbell, formerly of Glendale, now living in Flowerdale, Alberta, Canada, will be interested to know that an eleven-pound boy arrived at their home Sept. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell's only regret is that little Russell Campbell, being born in Canada, can never be president of the United States.

PICNIC AT REDONDO

Mrs. J. P. Shropshire of Everett street and Mrs. D. W. Hunt of West Fifth street chaperoned a party of young people who went to Redondo to participate in the festivities of the Fraternal Brotherhood picnic held there recently. Among the Glendale young people were Misses Birdie and Grace Shropshire, Dorothy Hunt and Mr. Roger Baker.

MILLER IN THE LEAD

RECEIVES ENTIRE VOTE IN ONE PRECINCT—NATURALLY ENTHUSIASTIC

Marshal Harry M. Miller is being congratulated by his many friends on the splendid showing made in his favor by the final election returns. In his campaign for justice of the peace of Burbank township Mr. Miller carried ten of the sixteen precincts, the total vote being as follows:

Harry M. Miller	1067
George C. Melrose	993
Frank J. Showalter	598
Walter Whitworth	352

Mr. Miller carried the four precincts in Glendale, Burbank City, Eagle Rock City, Annandale, Occidental, Sunland and in Glorietta Heights. In Occidental precinct he received every vote for justice of the peace.

Considering the fact that Mr. Miller was on duty nearly every day during the campaign and had practically no time for electioneering in the outlying precincts, his record speaks well for the confidence the people of Burbank township have in him.

TENNIS THIMBLE CLUB

The Thursday Tennis Club, which will hereafter be known as the Wednesday Tennis Club, enjoyed their usual morning frolic on the Congregational church court Thursday of this week, and as always, a delicious picnic luncheon prepared and served by Mrs. Everly and Miss Flora Bates was devoured at noon.

Another good time, as it were, enjoyed recently by the same ladies was the afternoon thimble tea with which Mrs. Louis Frazee entertained them in her home on West Third street.

Roses of blended shades embellished the home and after two hours of needlework and social chatter, the hostess served deliciously dainty refreshments to each of the following guests: Mesdames Fred Menelev, H. W. Yarick, W. Rector, A. Allison, M. Howell, V. Schuyler, M. G. Jackson and Miss Frances Jackson.

Mrs. Blake Franklin is the next hostess and will entertain this little club in her home, 1498 West Third street, tomorrow afternoon.

VALLEY PICNIC OLD SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION

The old settlers will have their annual picnic this year at Echo park on Saturday, Sept. 19th. This organization consists of old settlers in all parts of the San Fernando valley, although naturally those who reside in Glendale, Tropico and Eagle Rock are the most numerous among the members. The managers wish it clearly understood that all residents of the valley are invited to participate, as the "new settler" of today will be the "old settler" tomorrow. The accommodations at Echo park are ideal for picnic purposes, and it is selected for this reason and because the place is so easy of access.

Everyone is invited to bring a basketful of luncheon and enjoy a few hours of sociability. Coffee provided. Mr. J. C. Sherer is president and Mr. E. D. Goode secretary of the association.

MRS. ALTHOUSE ENTERTAINS

The cozy little home of Mrs. William S. Althouse, 347 North Isabel street, was bright with the pyramided tips of goldenrod Thursday afternoon when she entertained a few friends at 1 o'clock luncheon. The table, too, held a center shower of this yellow glow and held covers for the following guests:

Mrs. Gus H. Pulliam, Mrs. Jordan S. Neel, Mrs. L. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. B. Wilde, Mrs. Gus Eddy, all of whom, together with the gracious hostess, will be similarly entertained one week from Wednesday by Mrs. Jordan S. Neel in her home, 1434 Hawthorne street.

Sewing was the feature of the afternoon and much was accomplished.

INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Pink roses and fern adorned the home and also the table presided over Thursday by Mrs. Colin Cable, 755 South Columbus avenue, who entertained a few friends informally at luncheon. The afternoon, too, was delightfully spent, out-of-town guests having been Mrs. A. E. Teague, Mrs. W. Ackon, Mrs. Ella Smith and the Misses Ackon of Los Angeles.

Mrs. John G. Hunchberger of 344 South Central avenue is home again from Long Beach, where she spent three days with Mrs. Maude Cornell, state corresponding secretary of the P. E. O.

"DRY" MEETING

FEDERATION MAKES PLANS FOR A WHIRLWIND TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN

The Glendale Dry Federation met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, 200 Orange street, on Thursday evening in response to a call for a conference from the first vice-president. The pastors of the churches of Glendale and the presidents of all organizations interested in the temperance movement were also present.

The call was for a "dry" meeting, but it proved to be anything but dry. Enthusiasm for the cause of temperance ran high and many plans were outlined to make the present campaign one to be long remembered by the opposing forces.

Plans were made for four big mass meetings to be held in the high school auditorium and other features of the campaign will be the organization of the Young Crusaders and street parades.

The committee voted special commendation to the Glendale papers for their interest in the campaign.

HURRAH FOR A PARK

H. A. Wilson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is announcing that a real live interest will be taken in the park question this evening at the chamber of commerce meeting at the intermediate school on Third street between Jackson and Kenwood streets, at 8 o'clock. Glendale needs a public park and it is the opinion of some that the question of where it is to be located will be settled this evening.

TROPICO

Miss Lillian Hudson of Puente motored over to Tropico Thursday, having as her guests, Mrs. Fannie Sawyer Quinn and Mrs. Clara Pearson of El Monte, who arrived at Palm Villa, home of Mrs. David H. Imler, early in the morning. Mrs. Imler, Miss Cora Hickman and Eugene H. Imler, with Miss Hudson and party, motored to Griffith park, where a picnic luncheon was enjoyed. Eugene Imler prepared the splendid lunch of Belgian hare and all of the trimmings while Mrs. Imler and guests enjoyed the zoo and the natural beauties of the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett of Tenth street and children, Douglas and Catherine, motored to Griffith park Thursday, where a picnic luncheon was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hale and Miss Louise Hale of Pasadena and Miss Lila Shea of Tropico. These merry picnickers enjoyed a most delightful day.

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist church of Glendale held a most delightful meeting Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. Salisbury, the president, presided. Miss Hooper, a missionary among the Hooper Indians, gave a splendid talk. Mrs. Kanouse presented the program on "New Education in China."

After a delightful outing at Huntington Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Webster and sister, Miss Smith, of Central avenue, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Ayres and son, Stuart Ayres of West Park avenue, have returned from a week's sojourn at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston of West Park avenue were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Peckham Thursday evening at the opening of the handsome new Boos cafeteria, after which "Les Miserables" at the Auditorium was enjoyed.

Mr. A. L. Chandler, who has been the guest of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Chandler, will return to his home in Tropico the first of the week.

Mr. Bert Murdock had as his guests on a delightful motor trip to Sierra Madre a few days since Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston and children.

Mrs. M. Naughton Barnes of Walnut street was the guest Thursday of Mrs. Edward H. Weston of West Park avenue at luncheon.

Mrs. Charles White of Central avenue, whose recent illness has caused much solicitude in her family and large circle of acquaintances, is reported somewhat improved.

GUESTS FROM REDLANDS

The Misses Marjorie, Lucille and Ruth Alexander of Redlands enjoyed a two days' visit this week with the Misses Evangeline and Virginia Hunchberger. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner and small son of Los Angeles were also guests in the Hunchberger home, 344 South Central avenue.

ENTIRELY UNSELFISH

The motive underlying the announcement of the publishing of an anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News is an unselfish one.

It would be the wish of the publisher, were it possible for him to do so, to put out the edition without its costing anyone a cent to be represented in this unique publication, but the observation of good business principles will not permit of our doing this.

We are finding that the cost of the anniversary number of the Evening News, which is now on the press, will cost more than $2000. The substantial manner in which the citizens of Glendale are supporting this enterprise is indeed gratifying to the management.

BUILDING PERMITS

The building inspector has been very busy since the first of the month. Among the permits issued are the following:

S. J. Wilson, 1530 W. 7th, dwelling	$1400
Mrs. I. M. Canfield, 1421 Riverdale, addition	800
W. C. Taylor, 1208 Maple, dwelling	1800
Miss B. Winkler, 1430 Pioneer, dwelling	2000

LEAVE FOR SEVERAL MONTHS

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Neel, Jr., are wailing over the fact that this popular young couple have left Glendale for several months.

Mr. Neel, who is an employee in the city engineer's department, having been sent to Santa Maria to work, during that time Mrs. Neel will visit her sister, Mrs. Springer Oxnard, at Oxnard, Cal., to which place she went on Tuesday last. The attractive Neel home, 1473 West Third street, has been rented to out-of-town people, who will remain in Glendale until Mr. and Mrs. Neel return.

FREE DEMONSTRATION OF FER-MIL-LAC

Saturday Afternoon and Evening

We want everybody in Glendale to get a sample drink of this delicious, scientifically made and absolutely pure FER-MIL-LAC.

The Bacillus Bulgaricus

When Metchnikoff published his remarkable contribution to scientific literature in the Revue Scientifique (1904, volume 2, page 103), in which he classes old age as "a disease originating from the insidious poisoning of the cells of the vital organs of the body by toxins generated by the myriads of toxigenic bacteria that infest the gastro-intestinal tract," his announcement created world-wide interest. No one doubts the intimate relationship between putrefactive changes in the intestines created by the growth of harmful microorganisms, and disturbances of the general health due to the absorption of the products of decomposition. The administration of purgatives and chemical germicides has proved ineffectual for ridding the alimentary canal of disease germs. Metchnikoff's claim that these harmful microorganisms can be displaced by a beneficent bacterial growth, thus saving thousands of lives and increasing the longevity of the race, is worthy of the most careful consideration. That disease resulting from the poisoning of the blood by decomposition products may be prevented to a large extent by implanting cultures of living lactic acid-producing bacteria in the intestines, is now generally accepted by the medical profession.

The introduction of the Bacillus Bulgaricus as a therapeutic agent was due to results obtained by Metchnikoff in the treatment of his own case. He states that his discoveries helped him personally, as he was able to bring about a cure of his dropsy by the use of sour milk containing living lactic acid bacilli. In Fer-Mil-Lac we find an ideal manner of administering this, the strongest strain of lactic acid bacteria useful in the treatment of dropsy, intestinal indigestion, diabetes and all diseases caused by harmful microbes in the alimentary canal.

WHY YOU
BANK OF GLENDALE

California's laws regulating this bank are among the strongest in the United States.

In these laws are defined just what loans a bank may make.

Regular examinations are made by the State Banking Superintendent, and as a further protection to our depositors and to ourselves, we secured connection with the Los Angeles Clearing House and are examined by the Clearing House Examiner.

The funds are protected by a good screw-door safe in a vault fortified with electric burglar alarm, in addition to being insured against burglary and hold-up.

All officers are bonded.

The Bank of Glendale makes no loans to any of its officers.

Disinterestedness in those having care of your money is thus assured.

Keep in mind that we do a Commercial and Savings bank business; that we are provided with all that is desired in safety and service.
